when we wonder if He hears our prayers at all and when we feel totally alone. The truth is that God is still with us, we are simply experiencing a “ night season ” .

Faith In the Night Seasons | The King's High Way Ministries
A true Biblical night season is a God-sent, Father-filtered period of time where He specifically strengthens our faith and teaches us to walk only by His Spirit, not by our flesh. It's a time where God lovingly removes all our natural and comfortable "support systems" (inside and out) in order to replace them with total and unshakable faith in Him.

where God teaches us by depriving us of our natural "light" (our own seeing, feeling and understanding) in order to forge "pure faith." It's time where God instructs us by "darkening" us. Thus, the term "night season" (or "dark night") is a very appropriate title.

Faith in the Night Seasons: Are Night Seasons Part of God ...
Faith is allowing God to do in our lives all that He needs to do (good or bad from our point of view), in order to accomplish His perfect will. Faith is allowing God to strip, flay and crucify us, if that's what is needed to accomplish His will in us. Faith is simply accepting God's night seasons as part of His will towards us.

Faith in the Night Seasons Textbook: Understanding God's ...
In his book Abandoned to God, Oswald Chambers states, "The mystics used to speak of 'the dark night of the soul' (or 'night season') as a time of spiritual darkness and dryness, not the direct result of sins committed, but rather a deep conviction of sin itself within the heart and mind. It's a time the person 'is being brought to an end of himself,' and made aware of the utter worthlessness of his own nature when stripped of all religious pretensions.

However, when we block and prevent God from doing these things in our lives, either out of ignorance or disobedience, He sometimes will take matters into His own hands; i.e., the night seasons. The dark night or the night season is simply the transition we make from depending upon our own sight and our own selves to a total dependence upon Christ and His faithfulness. This shift brings us into a new way of knowing God.
